TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BOOKING

1. A Contract will be issued as confirmation of an agreement made between you (the Client) and Wildfolk.
2. The total Fee is inclusive of Musicians' travel expenses.
3. Cancellation by the Client for whatever reason within 21 days prior to the date of the Performance will be subject to full payment of the agreed Fee by the Client.
4. While we will make every conceivable effort to ensure that the Musician(s) will observe all the conditions of this booking, Wildfolk cannot be held responsible for any unforeseen, unavoidable circumstances causing lateness or non-appearance of the Musician(s). For the avoidance of doubt, the Client shall not be obliged to pay the balance of the Fee if, under such circumstances, the Performance does not take place.
5. Likewise, Wildfolk will make every effort to ensure by receipt of a Deposit that the booking is secure for the Musician(s). However, Wildfolk cannot be held responsible for unforeseeable circumstances causing last-minute curtailment by the Client. Clause 3 shall apply in this instance.
6. The Deposit is non-refundable. The balance of the Fee shall be payable in cash and in full to the Musician (to the Lead Musician as specified in the Contract for Ceilidh Band bookings) on the date of the Performance unless agreed otherwise in advance
7. In the event of a Musician giving notice of inability fulfil this booking, Wildfolk will make every possible effort to engage a suitable replacement.
8. It is accepted that Wildfolk acts as negotiator between the Musician(s) and the Client. Wildfolk will be entitled to a commission for negotiating contracts.
9. The Client is responsible for ensuring the suitability of the Venue. In addition, and if appropriate, the Client is responsible for ensuring compliance with all statutory provisions and Local Authority regulations applying to the booking, for all insurance against public liability or any other contingency, and for all necessary PRS and PPL licences
10. The Client shall provide proper supervision of persons attending the Performance and ensure the preservation of good order and the security of the Musicians and their property at the Venue.
11. The Client shall ensure a safe supply of electricity and PAT testing of their equipment. The Musician(s) will provide proof of PLI insurance and PAT testing of their own electrical equipment.
12. No liability attaches to Wildfolk.
